STI Announces the 2007 Million Mile Safe Driver Awards

— STI delivers Safety —

Fort Wayne, IN — June 18, 2008 — STI, a specialized transportation company providing quality services for products requiring special handling, equipment, on-site services and transportation, today announced the 2007 Million Mile Safe Driving Winners.

As a result of hard work and dedication, the following drivers have received Safe Driving Awards with STI. This is a great accomplishment, a significant milestone in their career and to our company. These awards are presented to drivers who achieve over 1 million consecutive miles accident free.

“STI is pleased to recognize this group of drivers on achieving a great milestone. Their loyalty to STI and dedication to safety are to be highly commended, said Rob Shearer, president and CEO of STI. This group of drivers exemplifies STI’s commitment to quality and safety.”

“This recognition acknowledges excellent performance in safety, says Tim Hughes, safety director. It takes a driver between 10 and 11 years of driving to drive over a million miles and to do it without an accident is remarkable. STI’s commitment to safety is quality applied and this group demonstrates safety to the utmost.”
