STI announces new time –definite service with STI Preferred

Fort Wayne, Indiana. – STI has a new offering; STI Preferred a service offering of time-definite, surface transportation to the wholesale transportation community. STI's focus is to be a neutral provider to the air freight forwarding market by providing airport to airport services in a customer responsive, damage free environment.

“Recognized as the industry leader for movement of high value products, STI brings the care, service, attention to detail and quality assurances to the wholesale transportation community with STI Preferred,” said President and CEO, Rob Shearer. “STI Preferred serves the wholesale transportation community through a time-definite service offering providing surface transportation between 32 major markets in the United States.”

“With this new offering, STI Preferred will provide scheduled surface transportation of cargo as a cost effective, reliable alternative to existing carriers in the marketplace,” stated Shearer. “Our focus is to meet the needs of customers by providing on-time, damage-free movement of goods. Utilizing Six Sigma methodologies, STI has made cargo claim prevention a source of differentiation according to current customers. STI has a 40-year legacy of trust, reliability and outstanding customer service. The STI Preferred network has the capacity forwarders require,” said Shearer.

“We have laid out ambitious goals to expand our service capabilities and this offering was another significant milestone in this effort,” continued Shearer.
